DONKEY BASKETBALL SHOW

THIRD ANNUAL CLASS BOWL

"Learning to Sink, or Swim in the Class Bowl"

The 1984 Class Bowl was won by the class of 1984 but this year the competition was tougher.

In the first two rounds the 11th grade beat the Junior High after a hot contest, then the Seniors beat the 10th grade. The consolation prize (3rd place) went to the Junior High who beat the 10th grade handsomely. The final was between the Juniors and the Seniors and the plaque went to the Seniors who got 73% of the answers correct.

The moderator, Ms. Bavister, feels this was one of the best Class Bowls she ever directed. The students were intelligent, cooperative, and poised. They were more than willing to think. Many of the participants showed excellent judgement and team work was much in evidence. Ms. Bavister applauds each team's efforts and thanks the Student Cooperative Association for sponsoring the event.

Here are some of this year's questions:

Write 1984 in Roman numerals . . .

Name the first female astronaut . . .

Who was George Washington's Vice-President? . . .

See if you can answer them.

THE WHITE COLUMNS STAFF

Students, Faculty, and Readers:

The 1984 White Columns is now a reality. As you look through the pages filled with memories you may be unaware of the effort that goes into the making of the White Columns. The staff worked hard to produce this year's White Columns. I wish to thank each of them for their efforts and achievements. You all can be proud of your 1984 White Columns. This year's book has been a student produced yearbook. This would not have been possible without the leadership and hard work of our Editor, Michele Paoni. Congratulations!

Jim Robertson
White Columns Advisor

Readers:

I hope you will enjoy reading this yearbook created by our White Columns staff. We worked very hard on it. This was my first experience as editor of the White Columns this year. I learned a lot. We thank Mr. Robertson for helping us with the yearbook.

Sincerely yours,
Michele Paoni
Editor

SENIOR'S FAREWELL

*Seniors, at last we've made it,
But as we are going through the door,
We may have a funny feeling,
We know we won't be back anymore . . .*

*Of course, that's what we have been waiting for,
Or that's what we used to say,
Now that High School days are over,
It's not so easy to walk away . . .*

*Remember pep rallies and football games,
Or a talk with our best friends,
Days when we were just so happy,
Or when we thought the world would end . . .*

*Back in the first grade,
We thought this day will never come,
We may not know where we are going to,
But we are proud of where we're from . . .*

*So here's to all of our dreams of the future,
With a prayer that might come true,
We may not forget the tears and laughter,
And V.S.D.B., we won't forget you . . .*

*Inside our hearts we'll always treasure,
The memories of friends so fine,
The day when we were all as one,
